LINDA'S TIDBITS

Happy St Patrick's Everyone! Make sure you wear your green, so you won't get pinched!

We are so excited about having the Easter Egg Hunt! On April 3rd or if it snows the makeup day is April 10th at Clarkson Park 1-3pm. Once the whistle is blown the Easter egg hunt usually is over in five minutes. It goes so quick! Be on time and line up in your age group and have fun! If it is nap time bring the kids just for the egg hunt; it is over in a flash! There will be several contests. First, we are going to have the downhill giant plastic egg race. Secondly, we will have the best decorated egg contest! You can also participate in the candy filled egg "guess the number" contest. Don't forget to take a picture with the giant furry easter bunny and his giant chair! We may have other fun things as well. Prizes will be given out at the event. Kids will be broken into four different age groups: 1-3, 4-6, 7-9, and 10-12 years old. We can use some extra volunteers to help hide eggs. If you would like to help a little call me, Linda Nixon or email me at Landsnixon@gmail.com.

LINDA'S TIDBITS, continued from front page

We have started our new membership drive for this 2022 year! Membership dues are still only $20.00 for the whole year! If you pay your bill by the middle of the month you will be entered into the drawing we will do at the March meeting to select the winner for the February $25.00 gift certificate from King Scoopers!

Please help us keep the sidewalks that our volunteers deliver on clear and clean for them to deliver our newsletter safely without falling! If you need help getting your driveway and sidewalk shoveled check out the teen services section of the newsletter. We know of several teens who are happy to earn some money shoveling snow. If you cannot afford to pay someone to shovel, please contact Uriel and he will set up a sponsorship for you. Thank you!

We still have positions open on the Board: Director of Newsletter Distribution and a few open positions with no assignments. We also have several new committees such as the Committee for Cencon (watch dog) for the new zoning and city-wide changes out this year. This committee will be watching zoning changes that are proposed so we can get that information out to our readers and residents. Other normal standing committees: The Fun Fest Committee, Dumpster Day Committee; Sign Monitor Committee, Storage Unit Building Committee, and the Vender Committee. None of these are big time commitments and some of them can be done from your own home. We also need some help getting the new shed put together. Scott Nixon will be coordinating the project when it warms up a bit, probably in March depending on weather. If you have already volunteered, you will be notified if you're on the list to help when Scott starts setting up the day for putting the shed up.

This spring we have a project for the new monument signs. We need some volunteers to put in bark or gravel with some edging and solar lights and then just routine maintenance. If you're interested in being a sign monitor/helper give me a call. Linda Nixon or email me Landsnixon@gmail.com

Be a good neighbor and a kind friend to all in need!

A REPUBLIC IF YOU CAN KEEP IT...

Your $20 membership fee goes to a lot more than just paying for the Fun Fest, Movie Nights and Dumpster Day. Your membership goes towards sponsoring one of the last places where local journalism still lives.

By the time this newsletter hits your door we will have posted to the Substack website (urielakiva.substack.com) multiple stories that were being worked on over the last few months. Links to each story were also posted to the SGCA Facebook page. Don't get confused by the Substack entry page. You don't have to subscribe or pay anything, the website is free, just click on "let me read it first" and you'll be inside the website. No premium content. No charge. I use Substack because they believe in free speech, but their entry page is confusing.

Frankly the stories need more space than we can put into this newsletter. Here are a few of the teasers of the March stories on the Substack:

- At least you don't live here: Commerce City. In this piece I dive into some investigative reporting I have done on Commerce City. For example, the City Council hired an outside firm to do a nationwide search for a new City Manager last year. After spending $30K they decided to hire...the interim

- City Manager, who wasn't even on the candidate short list.
- Not done yet, Commerce City is the gift that keeps on giving. While doing research on an employee that was struck and killed while on the job in the municipal maintenance yard I discovered that all 4000 plus local Colorado Governments are exempt from reporting workplace injuries and deaths to OSHA, and that they aren't required to report deaths or severe injuries to anyone. Nice little loophole there.
- Continuing reporting on the SouthGlenn redevelopment and rezoning.
- Local issue-oriented podcast and local elected official dashboard page.
- Having fun with the snow as the "Snow Threat Level Advisory" makes its debut.
- More surveys! Going to solicit more participation and information from the community. Sometimes serious, sometimes irreverent.
- Lastly, and what might be the biggest story of the year. You may have noticed that your property tax went up this year. One resident contacted me to report his property tax jumped from $3552.61 to $4567.83. That is an increase of $1015 in one year, or 28.57%. I did some research and everyone's property tax is going to go up, and by a lot, this is only the first year of the increases.

LOOK! A LEPRECHAUN!

The leprechaun is one of the most popular and enduring symbols of Ireland and St. Patrick's Day. Leprechauns are seen in cartoons, on cereal boxes, and in horror movies. (Trivia: The 1993 movie Leprechaun was future Friends star Jennifer Aniston's first feature film.)

In Irish folklore, the leprechaun is a little old man, typically dressed in a coat of red or green. As a group they're sneaky and mischievous, and when they're not jealously guarding their gold and treasure, they make shoes. The word "leprechaun" may come from leath bhrogan, shoemaker, although some say it's from the word luacharma'n (pygmy), since they're known as the "wee folk."

If you happen to catch a leprechaun, you may be in luck. But be very careful—he'll promise you anything if you set him free, including all his gold, but leprechauns are famous for their cunning and will likely trick you out of any treasure they offer.

PARKER JORDAN CENTENNIAL OPEN SPACE

In 2010, Centennial acquired 50 percent ownership of 107 acres of open space along the Cherry Creek in partnership with Parker Jordan Metro District (PJMD). This acquisition made it possible to complete one of the last significant links in the 40-mile Cherry Creek Regional Trail which extends from downtown Denver to Castlewood Canyon State Park in Douglas County. This open space, together with the Cherry Creek Valley Ecological Park and 17-Mile Park, form a regionally significant network of natural areas where the public can enjoy the Cherry Creek eco-system and natural history. Construction of the Broncos Parkway Trailhead (substantially funded by Arapahoe County and PJMD) and the Cherry Creek Regional Trail was completed in October 2010.

In 2017, the City acquired full ownership of the property and is currently responsible for its maintenance and operations. Location: 16450 E. Broncos Pkwy., Centennial 80112

SAVE YOUR VISION WEEK

March 6-12, Few realize how many people lose their sight every year. Many forms of blindness can be cured if discovered soon enough, and many people blinded by accident could have kept their sight had they taken minor eye safety precautions. Our eyesight and the eyesight of our children should be paramount on our list of personal responsibilities. Money can't buy it, but a checkup and early care can preserve it.

HEALTH COSTS SPUR DELAYS IN SEEKING HELP

The high cost of health care is prompting many Americans to delay or decline medical treatment. That's from a survey by the West Health Policy Center and Gallup, which found in a survey released in December 2021 that 30% of people had skipped going to the doctor in the previous three months because of the expense—a percentage that has tripled since the beginning of 2021. More than a fifth of survey participants said they'd seen a health problem—theirs or a family member's—get worse after delaying care. And 20% of people from households earning more than $120,000 a year had also postponed getting health care because of the cost, up 3% from March 2021.
